Zebra Case Arrests Made

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Six black men were arrested today in the Zebra street shootings in which 12 whites have been murdered and six others wounded in random attacks over a six-month period, police said.

Chief of Inspectors Charles Barca identified the men as J.C. Simon, 29; Larry Green, 22; Dwight Stallings, Thomas Manney, Manuel Moore and Edgar Burton, all of San Francisco.

He said Simon and Green were arrested first, in a 5 a.m. raid at an apartment. They were booked on charges of murder, conspiracy to commit murder and charges of assault with a deadly weapon, Barca said.

He gave no details on the other arrests, all made here, but said the other four men would be booked on conspiracy to commit murder.

Police said a kidnaping charge also was involved but did not explain.

Police did not indicate whether they anticipated further arrests in the case.

Eminent Jurist Honored

WORLD Briefly

SLA Manual Found

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — A Brazilian manual on political kidnaping was found in an Oakland apartment thought to have been a hideout of the Symbionese Liberation Army after Patricia Hearst was abducted, the San Francisco Chronicle reports.

The Chronicle said in a story in today's editions that Oakland police found the document, the "Minimanual of the Urban Guerrilla," Feb. 18. Miss Hearst was kidnaped Feb. 4.

The paper said police did not disclose the discovery in hopes that SLA members might return to the abandoned Victorian-style structure, a block away from city hall.

That plan was discarded when Atty. Gen. William B. Saxbe announced April 2 that federal authorities had gained possession of a terrorist kidnaping manual and that "this Hearst thing was conducted right by the book."

Meanwhile, Miss Hearst's father says he's not optimistic his daughter will be released by the SLA, despite a request by an imprisoned SLA founder that she be freed.

4 Killed in Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — A crippled ex-convict was arraigned today on four counts of murder in connection with the deaths of four persons whose bodies were found floating in Lake Ray Hubbard. Two of the victims were Ft. Hood soldiers.

A $400,000 bond was set for David Kern, 29, who appeared at his arraignment on a pair of steel crutches. Kern told Municipal Magistrate Frances Goodwin he could not make bond.

Police identified the victims as Michelle Renee Walmer, 19; Betty Cannon, 37; James Walker, 21; and James B. Cannon, 20, son of Mrs. Cannon. Walker and Cannon were stationed at Ft. Hood near Killeen.

Minimum Wage Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new minimum wage law is in effect today, although it may be a few weeks before more money starts showing up in the pay of the 4.2 million workers who would be affected immediately.

Labor Department officials said the delay is because they are behind schedule in sending out the papers explaining the changes to employers.

The new law is the first increase in the minimum wage in six years. It raises the minimum in steps over the next two years to an ultimate floor of $2.30 an hour for 56 million workers.

Hospital Board Approves Budget, Higher Charges

By SYLVIA A. WATERS
Sun Staff Writer

The Navarro County Memorial Hospital Board Thursday approved a revised budget and adopted increased charges for hospital services.

The board approved a revised budget of $337,400 which will include a total salary increase for employees of $242,800 to meet the new minimum wage law requirement of $1.90 which becomes effective May 1.

The new minimum wage law effective May 1 includes a minimum standard of $1.90; $2 effective Jan. 1, 1975; $2.20 effective Jan. 1, 1976, and $2.30 effective Jan. 1, 1977.

THE BOARD also approved hospital rate hikes that include an increase from the current range of $40-46 for a private room to $47.75-53.75; a semi-private, $36-38 to $43.75-45.75; ward, $35 to $42.75; ambulatory care, $25 to $30; nursery-regular, $23 to $26.25; nursery-intensive care, $35 to $38.25.

Operating room major procedure per hour will increase from $74 to $79.50; minor procedure per hour, $50 to $55.50; recovery room per hour, $12.25 to $13.25; anesthesia per case, $5 to $6; delivery room, $65 to $85; EKG, $13.50 to $14.50, and physical therapy per modality, $4.25 to $5.

THE BOARD approved an 8 per cent increase for X-rays, a 4 per cent increase for laboratory fees, and 50 cents for inhalation therapy per procedure.

Emergency room services will increase from $6 to $7.25. The new hospital rates are effective May 1.

Administrator Gene Barron and Richard Harwell, business manager, proposed salary increases. They pointed out turnover in employment in the hospital as a major reason.

THEY EXPLAINED that turnover is 30 per cent in administration; 54 per cent in nursing; 100 per cent in physical therapy; 125 per cent in inhalation therapy; 43 per cent in dietary and 69 per cent in housekeeping.

In other business, the board authorized Barron to write a letter to the architect drawing up plans for expanding the hospital parking lot. The letter will state the feelings of the board regarding progress being made on the plans. Members agreed progress is somewhat slower than they had expected.

BARRON reported that the hospital needs $89,000 to match Hill-Burton Funds for emergency room expansion. He also noted that he would continue to communicate with Navarro County commissioners concerning a contract for the expansion.

Dr. Robert Mertz, hospital chief of staff, told members of the board that the hospital committee staff met with board members A. G. Godley and B. Lynn Sanders and discussed the problems in the emergency room area. He explained that members of the staff agree that it is a high priority area and all agreed to help in anyway they can with the expansion.

THE BOARD agreed to request the second of three payments ($18,000) from commissioners' court plus a four-cent tax payment for hospital equipment and its maintenance.

The board approved the transfer of $33,334 from the medical discount reserve to the general cash account fund.

The board adopted the following by-laws:

"There shall be a Joint Conference Committee consisting of two members of the Hospital Board, two members of the Medical Staff, and two members from Administration. The members of the Medical Staff shall be appointed by the Chief of Staff. The committee shall function in a liaison capacity for the three divisions and shall also function as the accreditation committee. It shall meet routinely but on a schedule determined by the committee."

BARRON announced that the hospital received an anonymous $6,992 cardiac care training system.

Other gifts to the hospital include donations of $250 from Dr. and Mrs. Dan B. Hamill and $250 from Dr. and Mrs. Bernard Rosen.

The board approved a bad debt write-off of $9,946.03.

The March 31 hospital balance sheet includes an operating fund of $1,230,109; specific purpose fund $265,612; and plant fund $2,882,118.

Industrial Park Grant Eyed

City Manager Dick Ballenger told city commissioners present for a workshop session Tuesday that the board of directors of the Corsicana Industrial Foundation and Mayor Youngblood had met with him to discuss the possibility that the city hand in a pre-application to the Farmers Home Administration for a $500,000 grant to help develop a tract of land into an industrial park. The tract goes through the Chattanooga Glass Co. and crosses the railroad.

He said the city would not have to bear the expense if the application was rejected because the Industrial Foundation will fund the entire project.

The $500,000 is earmarked as follows: $205,000 for streets; $45,000 for drainage; and $250,000 for water and sewage extensions.

The commissioners and the mayor agreed to reach a decision in favor of the proposal at the next city commission meeting.

The commissioners also discussed firemen's hours and other fire department matters. See story, Pg. 12-A.

Area Gets Good Soaking

A light drizzle continued to fall on many areas of the Golden Circle at mid-morning today, following ground-soaking showers which provided over an inch of precipitation south and east of Corsicana.

The rain reporter in Fairfield said 2.50 inches fell there during a 24-hour period beginning last night, and a light sprinkle continued throughout most of the morning.

Wortham received 1.70 inches by 7 a.m., and cloudy skies forbode additional rain. Trinidad reported 1.50 inches; Teague, 1.8 inches; and Navarro Mills received slightly over an inch.

The official Corsicana weather station reported .96 inch by 7 a.m., while the Daily Sun central gauge recorded .98 inch.

Hubbard also received one inch, and a drizzle continued to fall. Ennis received .7 inch, and Kerens received considerable rain, though no measurement was available. Light sprinkles added moisture in the towns throughout much of the morning.

School Has to Hustle for Gas Buses Nearly Didn't Run

By JAMES NEWMAN
Sun Staff Writer

"The Impossible Dream" that almost every student who rides a bus to school has dreamed very nearly became a reality for Corsicana public school bus students.

The dream: the buses aren't running. The reason: no gasoline.

Supt. Joe Lindsey said this morning he received word shortly before noon Tuesday that the Corsicana Independent School District would not receive any more gasoline this school year, despite the fact that today's regular runs would have exhausted all local supplies.

That announcement—from the federal energy office in Dallas—transformed the superintendent's afternoon into a series of almost desperate, almost continuous telephone conversations, Lindsey said.

As a result of the hotbed of telephone activity and assistance from a local agricultural service, however, the superintendent advises adequate gas allocations have been approved.

The buses will run.

Lindsey said his afternoon of long distance conversations included the Dallas federal energy office and the Texas Emergency Fuel Allocation

Office in Austin. But he couldn't get satisfaction, he noted, before contacting Will Jones, executive director of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service located in the Navarro County Courthouse.

Lindsey said after he filled out "new" required applications and forms, Jones called the emergency office in Austin. Following that call, the Austin office authorized allocation of 5,000 gallons of gasoline for the school district to fulfill its needs for the remainder of the term.

Lindsey said he received confirmation of the allocation from Tom McCullough of Mobil Oil Corp., the school district's local gasoline supplier, at approximately 5 p.m. Tuesday.

"It's frustrating," Lindsey said this morning. "You have to do something (bus students to meet the Department of Health, Education and Welfare's integration guidelines), then you can't get the supplies to do it."

Lindsey said Tuesday, prior to approval of the allocation, he was "upset to say the least. We've got to have gasoline to run our buses for the rest of the school term...but right now I don't know where we are going to get it..."

The superintendent said the Dallas office said they could not help him because Corsicana uses less than 84,000 gallons of gasoline per year. They referred him to Austin.

Austin, in turn, said the proper applications should have "already been submitted," Lindsey said. He said he had no knowledge of any "new" forms to be submitted, and the previously-required information had been turned in.

Dallas advised Lindsey the gasoline was available, but the school district's request for May's allocation had been denied. They added, Lindsey said, the proper applications should have been submitted "a month ago."

Austin agreed, Lindsey said, and determined they could be of no assistance. They suggested the superintendent try, however, the local ASCS aid which eventually led to approval of the allocation.

Efforts to contact Jones this morning for comment proved unsuccessful. A spokesman in his office said he was out of town on business.

Lindsey concluded, "I'm pleased to get the allocation." It might never have rivaled the stories of "I walked three miles to school in a foot of snow everyday," but Corsicana students could have come close with "The month the buses didn't run."

A dream came true—almost.

What A Dish!

By Aileen Claire
This is an ideal time of year to spice up a meal with an apple dessert. An Apple Brissac combines the very cookable Washington Golden

IMPERIAL SUGAR
Pure Cane
QUICK DISSOLVING

Delicious apple in a bed of whipped cream, topped with sponge cake. Despite the constant talk about dieting Americans still love their desserts and this is one to please the most discriminating.

APPLES BRISSAC

Sponge Cake:
1 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
1/2 tsp. baking powder
1/4 tsp. salt
6 egg yolks
1 cup sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
1/2 cup boiling water

Apples:
3 Washington State apples
3/4 cup sugar
3/4 cup water
1 tsp. lemon juice
Dash salt
1 tsp. vanilla
3 to 4 drops red food coloring

Garnish:
1/2 cup whipping cream
1 tsp. sugar
1/2 cup sliced almonds
CAKE: Resift flour with baking powder and salt. Beat egg yolks. Gradually beat in sugar; continue beating until very thick, about 5 minutes. Blend in vanilla. Fold in half the flour mixture, then half the water. Quickly blend in remaining flour and water. Turn into ungreased 9-inch spring form pan. Bake in slow oven (300°F.) about 40 minutes, until cake springs back when touched lightly in center. Invert over wire rack and cool. Remove from pan. APPLES: Pare, core and halve apples lengthwise. Combine sugar, water, lemon juice, salt, vanilla and food coloring; heat to boiling, stirring until sugar is dissolved. Add apples, and poach gently until tender, turning and basting often. Remove apples. Boil syrup down to 1/4 cup. Remove from heat, and spoon slowly over cooled cake. Arrange apples around edge of cake. Whip cream with remaining tablespoon sugar. Spread around top and sides of cake. Pat almonds into cream. Makes 1 (9-inch) cake.

*Preferred variety: Washington Golden Delicious or Winesap.

Got the cooking and eating blahs? Try something new in the sandwich filler line, such as a Peanut Frankfurter. This is a combination of high-protein ingredients molded into a surprisingly tasty meat roll. Peanut butter, ground chuck, egg and bacon make up this winning combination. Serve with a favorite soup and fruit for dessert.

PEANUT FRANKBURGERS

1 pound ground chuck
1 small onion, chopped
1/2 cup peanut butter
1/2 cup chili sauce
1 egg
3 slices bread, crumbled
12 slices bacon
6 frankfurter buns, toasted
Sliced dill pickles or pickle relish

Mix chuck, onion, peanut butter, chili sauce, egg and bread. Shape mixture into 6 frankfurter shaped rolls of meat. Wrap each roll in 2 slices of bacon. Place rolls under a broiler and broil until bacon is crisp, turning rolls to brown on all sides. Place in toasted frankfurter buns and top with dill pickles or relish. Makes 6 servings.

As the weather begins to clear more families are thinking of foods they enjoy cooking over a barbecue. For others the approach of summer is only a continuation of rotisserie or barbecue cooking which they enjoy during most months. Whatever the habit or the mood, a nice sized spit-roasted ham served with yams is always welcome. You may want to double the orange sauce recipe to use over slices of leftover ham.

SPIT-ROASTED HAM WITH YAMS

1/2 cup firmly packed dark brown sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch
2 teaspoons dry mustard
3/4 teaspoon ground ginger
1 cup orange juice
1/2 cup dry white wine or apple juice
3 tablespoons salad oil
2 cans (23 ounces each) Louisiana yams, drained

In small saucepan blend sugar, cornstarch, mustard and ginger. Stir in juice, wine and oil. Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce boils 1/2 minute. Reserve 1/2 cup sauce for ham; pour remainder into large skillet and add yams. Secure ham on rotisserie spit. Cook at 400 degrees for 30 to 40 minutes, brushing frequently with orange sauce. Cook yams over low heat about 15 minutes. Garnish with toasted chopped nuts or parsley, if desired. Serve with glazed ham.

Although the price of pasta is climbing, elbow macaroni, spaghetti and egg noodles still offer a means to stretch the dollar. When combined with meats, poultry, eggs and cheese, macaroni makes a protein-complete and satisfying meal that is not excessively expensive. A Macaroni and Beef Skillet takes little time to prepare and it is as good when warmed as a leftover meal as it is the first time around. This is a dish a busy mother may want to encourage a son or daughter to prepare for the family or for teen parties.

MACARONI AND BEEF SKILLET

1 pound ground beef chuck
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 clove garlic, minced
1 medium green pepper, chopped
1 jar (14 ounces)

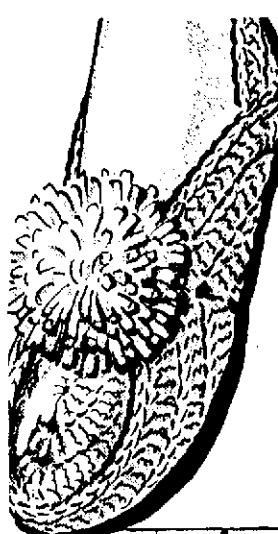

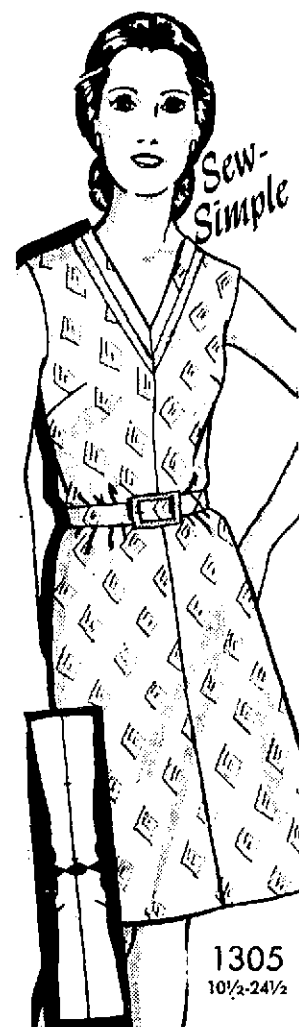

tomatoes, undrained
1/2 teaspoon oregano leaves
1/2 teaspoon basil leaves
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups uncooked elbow macaroni (8 ounces)
2 cups water
Grated Parmesan cheese, optional

Brown beef, onion and garlic in large skillet over medium heat, stirring frequently. Stir in all remaining ingredients except cheese. Bring mixture to a boil. Cover and simmer 12 to 15 minutes or until macaroni is tender. Stir occasionally. Serve with grated Parmesan cheese.

★ ★ ★ Aunt Louise ★ ★ ★

Gene and Rose Marie Harwell (Harwell's Muffler), Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Grantham and their children, Robin, Kathy and Riddy, recently returned from a trip to the Gulf Coast. Mr. Harwell said the highlight of their trip was an extensive tour of Padre Island. Too, on their way back home they visited Garner State Park at Uvalde. They enjoyed the "Hill Country", scenery and good food.

Dear Aunt Louise, "I enjoy your columns in the Daily Sun. I also enjoy hearing about your boys 'cause I watched them grow up. Keep up the good work." signed Verlene Ellis, 314 N. 23rd, Corsicana.

Thank you for writing and for the delightful card. I told a co-worker when I picked it up and read it that it made you want to GO ON. Smile! I'll try.

Dear Aunt Louise, "Just a note to invite you your readers to our First Friday Dresden Cemetery Meeting on Friday May 3rd.

We will be having our 97th meeting with Purdon Community workers responsible for a Memorial Service at 11 a.m. A basket lunch and fellowship will be enjoyed at noon and a business session will follow.

One senior citizen, Mr. Marshall Tatum, has been attending and working in the association for 80 years. He states he started going with his parents when he was only three years old. In those days everyone brought hoes and rakes and worked to clean up the ground." Signed, Sincerely, Mrs. Henry Ray Nicholson.

EMHOUSE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Sims of Corsicana visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Russell on Friday night.

The regular meeting for the Community Center met at the center on Monday night for a covered dish supper. Some 60 members and friends attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Stokes Armstrong spent Saturday night and Sunday in Fort Worth with their children, Rev. and Mrs. Don Pike and family.

Mrs. Ernest Feathers and daughter, Staci of Dallas and Danny Baggett of Corsicana spent the weekend with their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Vest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chaney spent Saturday night and Sunday in Tyler with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin and daughters.

J. W. Shadix, who has been a patient at the Memorial hospital for the past three weeks, is now home and is reported doing nicely.

The Emhouse Volunteer Fire Dept. will sponsor a barbecue supper at the Community Center on Saturday night. Serving will start at 5:30 p.m. with cost of plates being $2 for Adults and $1 for children. Entertainment will be Western and Country Music.

Weekend visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Armstrong were their children, Mr. and Mrs. Mackey McKennon and Donna, of Euless.

Mrs. David Sparkman and sons of Corbet spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Morgan and family.

Talking About Social Security

Some employers won't hire people unless they have a social security number. so students and other planning to get summer jobs should apply for a number now if they don't already have one, according to David Helmer, social security manager in Corsicana.

"Delaying your application might prevent your employment or cause you to lose time and wages in a job requiring a social security number," Helmer said. "When you don't recall having had a social security number before, your application is screened against central files in Baltimore to make sure a second number isn't issued to you—and screening takes time.

"YOU SHOULD apply for your social security number at least several weeks before you need it for a job," he said. "You can get information about applying by calling, writing, or visiting the Corsicana social security office."

A worker builds disability, survivors', retirement, and Medicare protection by work and earnings credited to his social security number. He gets credit if he's paid $50 or more in a 3-month calendar quarter in work covered by social security.

MORE THAN nine out of 10 jobs are covered by social security. "Your social security number is yours alone and remains the same for life," Helmer said. "When you get a job covered by social security, be sure your employer copies your name and number correctly from your social security card to his records."

PEOPLE APPLYING for a social security number for the first time may be asked to prove their age, identity, and citizenship, according to Helmer. The Corsicana social security office is at 415 North 12th Street. The phone number is 874-8206.

BAZETTE NEWS

Reverend Clyde Campbell visited in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Tom last week and also in the home of L. B. and Hazel Moss of Cleburne.

Mrs. Lona Mae Ainsworth, Mrs. Lorene Ross and Mary Lee, Mrs. Bill Warren and Mrs. Jessie Mae Shelton were Corsicana visitors last Sunday.

Mrs. Ellen Marshall and Mrs. Lena Ainsworth attended the Chatfield "42" Club in the home of Mrs. Mary Easterling last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Upchurch, Sheri and Brent from De Soto were in Bazette last week. They were joined Friday by a group from the Assembly of God Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Blackburn, Kristi and Karon of Abilene visited Mr. and Mrs. Tom Tramel last weekend. Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. James Perry and boys last weekend were Mrs. Perry Morgan and Mrs. Rita Allen Toole.

When Larry Gandy (J.M. Dyer Men's Wear), met Judy Slinessmith in 1960 he fell in love with her. In 1961 he asked Judy to marry him and if she would he promised to buy her a pink Thunderbird.

Although Judy and Larry have been very happily married they never could quite make up their minds that they could finance a Thunderbird.

The other day, after thirteen years of marriage Larry bought Judy a pink Thunderbird—a 1963 model! Smile! Well, I think it is a happy ending! They're still young and may buy a NEW one someday.

Dear Aunt Louise, "The Green Thumb Garden Club is sponsoring a garden tour on Tuesday, April 30th from 1:30-5:30 p.m. Gardens open for the tour include the Frank Blackwell's at 505 Love Circle. They are known for their beautiful roses and attract many visitors each year. They have over one hundred varieties of roses.

"Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Campbell of 536 Edgewood not only have an unusual garden, but also many exotic and rare birds of beautiful colors. The blue peacock spreads its feathers constantly to show off for visitors.

"There are also a pair of white peacocks, Silvers, Swinehoses, Amhersts and a very rare Elliot.

"The family made a pond, which doubles as a fish pond and pond for their four ducks. It usually is surrounded by garden flowers and rock hills with water falls. They have a large patio with over-hanging baskets and an attractive fountain.

"At 305 Forrest Lane the Carl Rhodes' backyard was planned for viewing from inside their home through the large glass doors. A four-foot rose bed with trellis accommodating Blaze Roses and a Jug Boy Fountain surrounds the extra large patio. There is a walkway full length of the house with flower beds on each side. Mrs. Rhodes refers to their yard as a 'Plant Museum.'

"The E.W. McLeods, 430 Madison, have a rock garden in the front yard, and in the back yard an enclosed patio with many pot plants. Mr. McLeod built a workshop for Mrs. McLeod to pot her plants. There are many beautiful roses and a sweet smelling honeysuckle fence.

"Tickets will be on sale at each garden. For only $1 you may view all the gardens!" (signed) Mrs. Jack Baggett.

Thank you very much for writing, and I hope your garden tour is a huge success.

Youth Court Due Study by Council

The Traffic Safety Council's subcommittee charged with organizing Corsicana's Youth Traffic Offenders Court Thursday at its meeting agreed to do more research on the proposed Youth Traffic Offenders Court before presenting the idea to the City Commission.

Jack Peery, chairman, reported that the committee will be checking the statistics on how many possible cases the court will be faced with, how many young people are injured in car accidents, and the feasibility of the court.

He also reported that Chief of Police Don Massey, Traffic Safety Coordinator Guy Rushing, and City Judge Don Peevehouse will study the matter and present their findings at a future meeting.

Two new members appointed to the committee included Mrs. Jane Shockley and Joan Slaughter.

Wortham Plans Flea Market, Arts and Crafts Fair in May

WORTHAM—An arts and crafts fair—featuring antiques, paintings, history displays and flea market—will be held May 4 and 5 in downtown Wortham.

The fair, which is being sponsored for the second time by the Wortham Study Club, will be held both days from 1-6 p.m., with the flea market scheduled for the first day only.

A professional art exhibit and various crafts and art exhibits will be featured both days.

ARTISTS from Corsicana, Freestone County, and other areas of the Golden Circle will display their work in the Lane Building.

A variety of arts and crafts will be displayed in the Beaver Building, while wooden crafts will be shown at Jenkins Grocery, and junior artwork will be featured in the Methodist Church basement.

The professional art exhibit will be presented in the home of the W. F. Eckhardts.

THE FLEA market will be open Saturday on Bates' lot on Highway 14 in central Wortham. A selling fee of $2 will be charged. Anyone is invited to set up stands, and parking space is provided at the site so items may be displayed from vehicles.

Antique displays will be featured in the Bates Building, and antiques may also be examined at Moore's Variety Store, Keeling Grocer, Simmons' shop, and Strange Insurance Agency.

Wortham history will be featured at Millers' Dress Shop., and a Freestone County historical display will be offered at Fox Cleaners.

Modern and period needlework and sewing will be displayed at the Community Room, a quilt show will be featured at the Simmons Store Building, and a crafts and doll display will be shown at the Southwestern Electric Building.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Secretaries Name Officers

Corsicana Chapter, National Secretaries Association, chose Mary Yielding as its new president for 1974-75 at a dinner meeting Thursday evening climaxing the local observance by the chapter and Corsicana of the 23rd annual national Secretaries Week.

Featured speaker at the dinner at Kinsloe House was Lary Reed, assistant to Dr. Kenneth Walker, president of Navarro College. Reed spoke on role of the junior college in becoming more oriented as a "community college," which evolved from concepts Reed projected to trustees during the interim period he served as acting president.

Elected to serve with Miss Yielding, secretary to President W. D. Wyatt of First National bank, were Nancy Smith as vice president; Lenora Cohagan, as secretary; and Mary Summa as treasurer.

Outgoing President Billie Carroll introduced the chapter's newest member, Jo Wrenn, secretary to Norman (Buddy) Shaw, vice president of Collin Street Bakery.

The chapter had as special guests several prospective candidates for membership in the National Secretaries Association, Mrs. Carroll said.

Cancer Society Planning Bike-A-Thon for May 11

The Navarro County Bike-A-Thon sponsored by the American Cancer Society will be held at 9 a.m. May 11 at the YMCA, according to David Owen, chairman.

Participants in the bike-athon will solicit sponsors and local businesses to put up so much money for each mile ridden, he explained. All proceeds will go to the American Cancer Society.

He noted that the 15-20 mile route will be announced later.

Corsicanan Travels With Jazz Ensemble

STEPHENVILLE: Texas (Sp)—Payton Slack, of Corsicana, is a member of the 20-piece Tarleton State University Jazz Ensemble that will present two performances at the World's Fair in Spokane, Wash., on May 23-24.

The TSU Ensemble has been appointed Official Ambassador of Goodwill from Texas to Expo '74 by Gov. Dolph Briscoe.

The Ensemble will leave the D-FW Regional Airport on May 19 and will play three concerts in the Seattle area prior to their World's Fair appearance.

Before returning to Texas on May 26, the jazz group will play a concert at the College of Great Falls, in Great Falls, Mont.

Dennis Guillaume, member of the Tarleton music faculty, is director of the Ensemble.

Applications will be distributed within the next week to all county middle schools and high schools.

Owen explained that participants have one week to turn in money received in the bike-athon.

The persons who turns in the most money will receive a 10-speed bike, and the person who turns in the second highest amount of money will receive a regular bicycle.

For further information contact Owen at Corsicana National Bank at 874-7472.

Ennis Approves Equipment Bid

ENNIS — A $218,033 bid submitted by Huddleston Construction Co. for providing sewage plant equipment has been approved by the Ennis City Council, subject to approval of the Environmental Protection Agency, according to Ennis City Manager Hayden Routh.

The $218,000 bid — lowest of 12 submitted — is to provide a lift station, force main and trunk system connecting the City of Sonoma sewage plant to Ennis' Oak Grove plant.

The bid represents the final contract for materials or labor needed to complete the sewage plant improvements by next spring, according to Routh.

Shortages Not Expected to Faze Texas Tourists

By ROBERT E. FORD
Associated Press Writer

At Trent at Kerrville was talking the other day about summer visitors and how he doesn't believe the gasoline problems will stop them.

Indications are that the tourist business will be as good or better than ever, Trent says.

And a survey across Texas shows the same outlook, whether you're talking about summer cottages on the beach or in the cool Hill Country around Kerrville.

Or a major gateway for vacations in Mexico.

Or one-day attractions such as Six Flags over Texas Amusement park and the LBJ complex at Stonewall.

If you don't think the tourist business is important to you, remember that people visiting Texas last year spent $1.5 billion and some of that must have trickled down to almost everyone.

Almost all observers say they expect visitors to come from lesser distances this year, but this outlook is clouded by recent facts from the Texas Highway Department. It reports that the greatest number of tourists—12 per cent—in the three winter months just past came from California. Next highest was seven per cent from Oklahoma and five per cent from Louisiana.

Washington has sworn a mighty oath that there will be gasoline for vacations. But you know how people are. Most of them look at government promises with a jaundiced eye.

But Trent is trustful. One of his civic responsibilities is to keep a clear view of the tourist situation.

He pointed to deer hunting last year, around Kerrville, where the late Lyndon B. Johnson said there are more deer than people. This was in the fall during the worst of the fuel squeeze.

"There was no decrease shown in hunters last year," Trent said, "and we don't anticipate anything less this year."

He added, too, that "it appears we have more conventions coming in this summer than last." And to get to Kerrville, you almost have to drive the family car.

Trent pointed out that Kerrville is more for the visitor who stays rather than one who drops into the city, looks at a few museums and scoots out again. Many rent summer homes because of the cool weather and others own summer places.

Trent also says there may be a trend toward visitors coming from shorter distances. Then he contradicts himself somewhat by saying the city's convention bureau got 300 queries in one day recently, mostly from outside Texas.

Harold Woods, LBJ State Park superintendent, says 35,000 persons visited there in February.

A year ago, shortly after Johnson's death, the February figure was 36,000—there was a sharp upturn in visitors each month after he succumbed. A better comparison would be February 1972 when there were 16,000.

The park is No. 2 in drawing power for visitors to Texas.

Linda Doty of Six Flags over Texas, the state's No. 1 tourist attraction with 2,267,000 admissions last year, also said visitors might come from shorter distances.

But, "We are not worrying about the effect of gasoline shortages this year," she said.

Park workers check gasoline stations and will tell anyone who asks where fuel is available.

Laredo is one of the big funnels from the United States to Mexico. Jim Parrish of the Laredo Times has just returned from 18 days in the Mexican interior and says there are no gas problems there.

Parrish, the government oil monopoly, gives top priority to tourists.

Parrish says it appears more persons now are combining a trip to Laredo with a visit to the interior of Mexico.

"We've been getting fewer visitors who just run down to the border on the spur of the moment or for a weekend trip," he said.

Figures at the Laredo international bridge show the number of persons crossing in the last three months is up about 12 per cent over the same period last year.

Persons crossing one way south in 1972 totaled 9.9 million, and this went up to 10.3 million in 1973.

Parrish quoted Mrs. Carmen Botello, manager of the Laredo Bridge Systems, a city-owned agency, as saying persons were very apprehensive when the Sunday gas station closings began. But fears proved groundless.

Corpus Christi and vicinity is

A Texan Lost in Texas

South Padre Island is a summer as well as winter vacation spot. Betty Precin, Chamber of Commerce manager, said several motels are booked up from mid-June through Labor Day.

She adds, "It looks like more Texans are going to take their vacations in Texas this year."

Mrs. June Tallant, town secretary for South Padre Island, said building permits in February, the worst month of the year for finding gasoline there, were $1 million. There are no comparable figures since the town was not incorporated until last July.

People are still pretty shaken about the gas situation.

Constitutional Convention Delegates Look for 'Chair Money'

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Constitutional Convention delegates have a sense of history — and enough sense to know the possible future value of the chairs in which they sit.

Some are buying enough $190.32 replicas of the convention chairs to ring a sizeable dining room table or even to open a small restaurant.

A delegate who purchases a replica can substitute it for the chair he actually used during the convention. The originals, which might have some historical value, will be tagged, probably with metal, with the delegate's name and the occasion.

"Trading equals for equals" is what makes it legal for a delegate to take his original chair, says Rep. James Cole, D-Greenville, the House administrator.

Delegates and convention staff members have paid $61.324 chairs.

The chairs are similar to those used in the 1875 constitutional convention — straight chairs with low backs, wooden arms and turned front legs.

But those of the 1875 convention, held in Austin's muggy late summer and early fall climate, had wooden seats and backs, with holes to let the air circulate over a sweaty delegate's back and rear. The present delegates enjoy leatherpadded seats and backs, embellished in gold with the state seal, along with air conditioning.

Rep. Henry Sanchez, D-Brownsville, filed the largest order—for 50 chairs—and paid for them with a $9,508 check.

He said he was buying them to resell at cost to friends, family and political supporters who had told him they would like to have copies of the convention chairs.

"These chairs are committed. But if I have any left over, sure they are for sale," Sanchez said.

Others who have bought several chairs include convention President Price Daniel Jr., five; Rep. Benjie Beck, D-Veneta, nine; Rep. Terry Canales, D-Premont, eight; Rep. Pete Laney, D-Hale Center, eight; Rep. Ben Atwell, D-Hutchins, 10; Rep. Ben Bynum, D-Amarillo, five; Rep. Joe Allen, D-Baytown, four; Rep. Dean Cobb, D-Dumas, four; Rep. David Garza, four; Rep. Ray Hutchinson, R-Dallas, four; Rep. Karen Lerner, five; Sen. Mike McInnon, D-Corpus Christi, four; Sen. Peyton McKnight, D-Tyler, four; Rep. Bill Sullivan, D-Gainesville, five; Sen. A. R. Schwartz, D-Galveston, four; and Rep. Buddy Temple, D-Diboll, four.

Faded Beauties Turn Cinderella

DALLAS (AP) — For a while each week the faded beauties of Golden Acres get to be Cinderella, albeit on canes and in wheelchairs.

"It's been such an uplift. I am 81 years old yet I have the skin of a 50-year-old," beamed one proud lady.

Through a program funded through the Dallas Orchestra to stilt, the residents of Golden Acres are treated each week to a facial massage with cold creams and cleansers, fresh makeup and a hairstyle.

"The point we have tried to prove is that older women are still interested in how they look," explained Marvin Ernst, director of the institute. "The better they look, the better they feel."

After six months, the program has proved to be a rousing success, says Ernst. "We don't accept the philosophy that institutional care must remain the same ... it must change for the better. Moving to a nursing home doesn't have to be the end of the world."

Fifty women, aged 57 to 94, have been taking part in the grooming program.

Ernst said some of the elderly men who had been watching the weekly transformations decided they, too, wanted to look more dashing and began receiving facials and grooming.

The men soon dropped out, however, said Ernst, because of disinterest.

Bicentennial Sculpture Asked of Texas Student

SEGUIN, Tex. (AP) — A Texas Lutheran College artist has been asked to do one of the first major Bicentennial sculptures.

Elmer Petersen, head of the Art Department, will design and fabricate a mammoth sculpture to be placed in Jamestown, N.D., as part of the nationwide Bicentennial celebration.

A working model is complete, Petersen said, and the finished piece will be in place by Sept. 1.

The Bicentennial sculpture will be 17 feet high by 26 feet wide and will be mounted on a curved stone wall on the Memorial Building facade in Jamestown.

The commemorative will weigh more than a ton, and will include over 1,500 pounds of bronze plates.

The sculpture is being made of sheet bronze, portions of which will be chrome-plated, and is being fabricated by oxy-acetylene welding. Work is being completed in sections on the campus.

Endlessly honed and leveled by a succession of Ice Age glaciers, Denmark has prompted neighboring Norwegians, with their wealth of mountains, to tax the Danes with the comment: "If you stand on a box you can see the whole country."

6 Members from Navarro Place First in District 4-H

Navarro County 4-H Club members placing first in 4-H District Eliminations in Stephenville last Saturday are Jennifer Bonner and Rebecca Watkins in "Landscape Horticulture," and Veronica White and Elaine Radford in "Vegetable Preparation and Use."

24 Navarro County 4-H Club members competed in the contest, reported Assistant County Agent Mike Gage. Those winning first and second places will be eligible to compete in the State 4-H Round-up June 4 and 5 at Texas A&M University.

County 4-H members placing second were: Joyce Lowe in "Money Management Educational Activity"; Rodney Bonner and Mack Boyd, "Poultry Demonstration"; and Regina Dent and Joe Hubbard, "Safety and Emergency Preparedness."
Roy Nell Johnson placed third in "Foods and Nutrition," and Lovie McDonald placed third in "Home Environment Educational Activity."

IN THE JUNIOR division, Regina Jones and Michelle Reese placed first in "Community Improvement Demonstration," while Diane Stokes placed second in "Public Speaking," and Sharon Hubbard placed second in "Clothing Education Activity."

A Navarro County Junior Dairy Team, which placed third, includes Randy Springer, Michael Phillips, and Gary Armstrong, who was the second highest scoring individual.
The senior county team competing in dairy cattle judging was composed of Becky Armstrong, Billy Phillips, William Armstrong and Janice Phillips.
"Navarro County has a right to be proud of the outstanding performance shown by these fine young people in both the district contest and their courteous behavior," Gage said.

UPCOMING 4-H activities include the Navarro County Youth Exposition scheduled for April 30, including the dress review in Corsicana High School. The livestock show will be May 3 and 4.
The 4-H method demonstration and judging teams will be competing against 18 other counties, hoping to win the right to compete in the State Contest at Texas A&M University on June 4 and 5. The state 4-H Roundup is being held at the university at that time.

The 4-H Council Leadership Laboratory will be held July 1 and 2 at Trinidad in the Texas Power and Light Youth Center.
One July 22-26, the Texas 4-H Congress will meet in the Baker Hotel in Dallas.

ANY SENIOR in high school with an outstanding 4-H Club record may pick up applications for the 4-H Opportunity Scholarships. These include a Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Scholarship, four Raymond Dickson Foundation Scholarships, and two Texas Farm Bureau Scholarships.
Applications for the Danforth Leadership Training Conference at Camp Minniewa may also be picked up at the County Extension Office in the Navarro County Courthouse.

Sheriff Jerry Shelton said both bank presidents described the caller as having "a very smooth, businesslike voice." He said a search of both banks turned up no bombs, although the caller had said each bank had eight minutes in which to deliver the money before a bomb went off.

SHELTON SAID both calls were long-distance and that his department had tried to follow the only lead they ever received. Several people reported having seen a man and a woman "fooling around," in Kerens about the same time the banks received the bomb threat calls. The sheriff said a search of Navarro County and Henderson County "did not turn up anything." He said a statewide pickup was put out with a description of the couple and the 1966 Chevrolet they were driving but that nothing ever came of it.
"There were absolutely no reports from any of the other law agencies in the state and we have closed the case until we receive any new leads," Shelton said.

Deputy Dunagan Gives Resignation

Deputy Sheriff Bryan Dunagan submitted his resignation to Sheriff Jerry Shelton effective May 15 and began today, Tuesday, his vacation leave through his date of resignation.

Dunagan, who was originally appointed a deputy by former Sheriff Rufus Pevhouse, began his service as a deputy on Aug. 1, 1971.

In revealing his resignation to the Sun Monday, Dunagan said he had no immediate plans.

"I've enjoyed working for the people of Navarro County and appreciate the opportunity former Sheriff Pevhouse gave me to become a deputy. I have enjoyed working with all the

David Lang Slated For Tech Graduation

LUBBOCK—A Corsicana student, David Aldrich Lang, is a candidate for a bachelor's degree in zoology as one of 1,651 candidates for B.A. degrees from Texas Tech University in Spring 1974 commencement exercises May 11.

Lang is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert A. Lang, 1620 Princeton Dr., Corsicana.

Rice, Powell Threat Investigation Is Ended

By SOFIA CANO
Sun Staff Writer
The Navarro County Sheriff's Department has stopped its investigation of bomb threat calls made to Rice and Powell Banks in February.

Sheriff Jerry Shelton said, "The case is closed due to lack of evidence." He said FBI agent Joe Abernathy of Dallas told him there was not "sufficient evidence to further the investigation."

"There were no witnesses and since no money was lost, there were no marked bills to watch out for," Shelton said. He said that the department would certainly "reopen the case if we get a new lead."

RON CAVENDER, president of the First State Bank in Rice, received a call at 1:20 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 6 asking that $20,000 be placed in a bag and thrown across a viaduct a short distance from the bank. The call to Powell State Bank was similar to the one made to the Rice Bank. At 1:45 p.m., Paul people in the courthouse and appreciate the cooperation I have received from everyone and the Daily Sun.

Although he said he had no specific plans for other employment after May 15, Dunagan emphasized "I am going to better my education in law enforcement to better serve and protect the people of the county at a later date."

Asked if this meant he was contemplating being a candidate for public office, Dunagan did not care to comment on his future plans in that direction. He said he had sought throughout his employment as a deputy sheriff to serve the residents of the county faithfully and "I hope my recovery of stolen merchandise, most of it I got (back) out in Dallas County through cooperation with officers there, has more than paid my salary as a deputy sheriff."

Honorary Degree To Ex-NC Student

Beverly Ray Henson, a former Navarro College student and presently professor of music and director of choral activities at The University of Oklahoma, will receive an honorary Doctor of Music Degree from Southwestern University in Georgetown, May 3.

A native of Kerens, Henson attended Navarro in 1948 and 1949. He is a 1952 graduate of Southwestern University with the Bachelor of Music Education degree and holds the Master of Music degree from Kansas City Conservatory.

Henson was appointed to his present position in 1973, having served as Head of Choral Activities and Vocal Music Education at Texas Christian University for 12 years and on the faculty of Trinity University for four years. He began his teaching experience at McAllen High School.

Henson has received the Outstanding Alumnus Award from Navarro College, the Citation of Merit Award from Southwestern University, and selection for Phi Kappa Lambda at the Kansas City Conservatory. He serves as the President of The Texas Choral Directors Association.
